Chao! This is the last issue of The New Bamfielder I will produce (see over for the first). Hopefully, someone(s) will either continue TNB or replace it with a new approach (historically, the paper has been commercialized). Our survival over the past 14 years is in response to: Heather Washburn who sponsored & managed our website (up to 5000 visits per issue); Marc Phillips who provided the photo journalism and with his Judith provided the printer; Rae Hopkins who, as copy editor, provided typo-free, grammatically correct text; Stella Peters for photos; Jerry Baird for weather; The Market & Bamfield Mercantile & the Post Office for distributing the paper, The Bamfield School Association for dispersing donated funds for student projects; and you, the occasional contributor of copy. Thank you!
Louis Druehl

Submissions are welcome. They may be edited for clarity and taste, and should be brief. All submissions must have the author's name. Submit to ldruehl@island.net. The New Bamfielder is free but we encourage readers to contribute to Bamfield Community School Assoc. youth programs. Louis Druehl

THE NEW BAMFIELDER

In Support of Anacla and Bamfield Youth

1 June 2011

No. 1/75

Welcome to Bamfield's The New Bamfielder. This publication celebrates Bamfield's, The Bamfielder, started by Christopher Lobban (who is now a professor at the University of Guam) in 1972. The New Bamfielder is free but we encourage readers to donate to the Bamfield Community School Association youths' Program. Louis

The Creek Weekly, a two-sider put together by Lifesaving and Cable Station staff may have been Bamfield's first newspaper. It was free as people would have "hooted with derision at the thought of paying for a sheet they habitually called The Creak Weakly". Good luck to all on The New Bamfielder! Heather Cooper, Bamfield Historical Society

Road News: Tales of terror. Erythronium Revolutum! Have you ever noticed the bed of blooming fawn lilies near 57 on the Bamfield Road? A beautiful sight of pink lilies and the occasional trillium appears each spring in a slightly secluded spot along the Sarita River. These flowers, named fawn lilies, have a spot pattern

Volunteer Fire Department Sparks. I would like to start off by mentioning our dates for the fire daze events. The Intertidal Golf Tournament, Salmon BBQ and Dance is on July 16th and the BVFD Fishing derby is on the August long weekend July 30, 31 and August 1. We will also be at Soulstice at Pachena on June 18th.

Easter Bunny Revealed! Once again Ardie Logan, with the help of Marion Logan and Sharon Dunsmore made the Easter Bunny trip to Nitnat. This year they stuffed toy lambs (see photo) for 35 Nitnat children. A great picnic day was held and even Brad Perkins (#3 Port Desire) from Victoria attended, bringing

Quotes A tourist: "Those boys hanging out on the boardwalk remind me of the goats on the Coomb's Farmers Market roof."
